CROOKED ROAD CONCERTS

SATURDAY JUNE 8

CUBE DANCE (SQUARE DANCE CUBED!) LED BY THE HOORAH CLOGGERS WITH CALLER LP KELLY AND THE HAPPY HOLLOW STRING

2:00 PM • Free Admission with ticket
Hosted by: Blacksburg Hoorah Cloggers, Moss Art Center and the Institute for Creativity, Arts, and Technology (ICAT)
Location: The Cube at the Moss Arts Center, 190 Alumni Mall, Blacksburg.

EVENT EXTRAS:

1:30 PM: Ticketholders can join Cube Dance creators Zach Duer, Anne Elise Thomas and Jen Barton in the Cube for a brief demo and discussion of the ideas and the technology behind the Cube Dance.

It's an old-time traditional square dance

– Cubed! The Cube Dance combines Blacksburg's strong local tradition of Appalachian square dance with the cutting-edge creativity of the region's premier research university. Take part in a first-ever community dance experiment in the Cube, ICAT's state-of-the-art theatre and high-tech laboratory. Dancers at this family square dance will take turns putting on wearable sensors; their movements through the square dance figures will be captured by the Cube's infrared cameras. The motion-capture data will be visualized by artist Zach Duer and projected in real time onto elevated screens. What will these patterns look like? Perhaps a cross between a kaleidoscope and moving squares on an old-time Appalachian quilt?

This dance features live old-time music by the Happy Hollow String Band (Emily Reisinger, Chris Dunavant, Jen Barton, and Sam Leary) and calling by LP Kelly, as well as a performance (with motion capture) by the Hoorah Cloggers. Welcoming all ages and abilities. Dance instruction provided, no partner or experience necessary.

Note: Tickets for the dance are free of charge on a first come-first served basis and may be obtained from the Moss Center Box office by calling (540) 231- 5300.

“REMEMBERING DOC”: WITH T. MICHAEL COLEMAN, WAYNE HENDERSON, JACK LAWRENCE, JEFF LITTLE

7:30 PM • $15 ADVANCE • $20 AFTER MAY 31 • $10 CHILDREN (12 AND OTHER).

EVENT EXTRAS:

5:00 to 6:00 PM: "Doc's Legacy" – Presentation by Appalachian scholar Ted Olson on the legacy of Doc Watson and the new 4-CD box set of recordings from Doc's career.

6:00 to 6:45 PM: "Sharing Memories" – Concert artists and audience share memories of Doc in the Cube. 6:45 to 7:15: Performance in the lobby by the Montgomery County JAM Youth Program. Free Admission.

"Sharing Memories" and "Doc's Legacy" are free, and on a first-come, first-served basis, but to guarantee your seat, register through the Moss Arts Center box office at www.artscenter@vt.edu or by calling 540-231-5300.

Doc Watson is an iconic figure in American music and despite his passing in 2012, his impact is still felt far and wide. This concert by those who performed with Doc and counted him a close friend will be a chance for everyone who loved Doc to share in a celebration of his life and music. On stage playing together for Doc will be his longtime bassist T. Michael Coleman and guitar companion Jack Lawrence, and Doc's good friends Jeff Little on piano and Wayne Henderson on guitar.

FEAST AND FROLIC AT THE FARM - FEASTIVAL WITH SQUARE DANCE BY CALLER PHIL LOUER AND THE INDIAN RUN STRINGBAND

5:30 PM • $70 Feastival & Square Dance
$10 Square Dance Only (8:00 PM)
Hosted by: Susan Sink, Sinkland Farms and the Montgomery Museum of Art & History

Location: Sinkland Farms,
3020 Riner Road, Christiansburg
Sinkland Feastival Sponsor: First Bank & Trust
Feastival Series Sponsor: Blue Ridge
Beverage

Enjoy a farm-to-table dinner on a scenic 125-acre mountain farm, then dance the night away in the barn to toe-tapping tunes and lively dance calls. No experience necessary! Starting with a social hour under the stars (with craft beer from the Sinkland Farms Brewery), guests will then enjoy a meal prepared from local ingredients and highlighting local food traditions prepared by classically French trained Chef Rachel Doyle. Following dinner, demonstrations of local dance heritage give guests time to digest and prepare for dancing! In the barn, you can participate in (or just watch) traditional square and round dances with the guidance of an expert dance caller and teacher Phil Louer to music provided by the Indian Run Stringband. Join us for great food, music, dance, and company—and see one of Southwest Virginia's most successful agritourism ventures.

EXPERIENCE SOLITUDE AS CONTESTED SPACE THROUGH ITS FOLKLIFE, FOLK MUSIC, AND FOLKLORE

10:00 AM - 5:00 PM • FREE

Experience the multiethnic and multiracial folklife heritage of the Solitude site on the Virginia Tech campus through European, African, and Native American music, material lore, storytelling, crafts, and food traditions of Virginia’s New River Valley from the ante bellum period through the Jim Crow era. Expect West African food samplings, mid-18th century fare of the rich and poor Germans and Scotch-Irish of the area, and tastes of the Native American cuisines of the region. Listen to, or participate in, storytelling, music, and dances from these different traditions as well. Metal, wood, and fiber craft demonstrators will also be available to show how to make fireplace pokers, weave and dye cloth, and make various children’s dolls and whistles. Updated tours of the site will also be available. The Solitude events are sponsored by the Solitude Preservation Fund and Virginia Tech’s Appalachian Studies Program.
